THE Numb. 429.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 26, 1753.

HANOVER, April 23.

WHOLE Families are daily paſſing through this Place in their Way to Hamburgh, where they are to be embarked for New England. The Addreſs of the Agents in repreſenting that Country as a new Canaan, has inſpired an infinite Number of Perſons, who have certain Bread in this Country, with an Inclination to go thither, to gather the heavenly Manna, without labouring for it; and they would have certainly ſet out, if proper Meaſures had not been taken to ſatisfy them, that they muſt work for their Livelihood in New England as well as here.

Embden, April 3. The King of Pruſſia has granted an Octroy for eſtabliſhing a Company here, which is to carry on a Trade to Bengal, and the neighbouring Coaſts, independent of that which is already carried on with China, by the Aſiatic Company lately ſet on Foot. The Fund which is intended for carrying on this Undertaking is fix'd proviſionally at a Million of Rixdollars of Brandenbourg, which at the Rate of 500 Dollars per Action, will make 2000 Actions, which are neither to be increaſed nor diminiſhed, without the Conſent of the General Aſſembly of the Proprietors: The Company is to pay 4 per Cent per Annum, for the Amount of the Actions, to commence three Months after their Date. A Perſon poſſeſſed of ten Actions is entitled to a Vote in the General Aſſembly; Proprietors of 30 to 50 Actions to have two Votes, and thoſe of 50 Actions and upwards, three Votes; and no Proprietor whatever to have any more.

LONDON.

April 3. Letters from Ireland adviſe, that, thro' the Want of Charcoal, the Forges for making Bar-Iron are reduced in that Kingdom, from Forty-two, to Five; and that the Bar Iron annually imported, amounts to the Sum of 50,000 l.

April 5. Laſt Tueſday died of the Gout in his Stomach, at his Houſe at Chatham, Commodore Brown, Commiſſioner of that Yard; he was attending the Pay Table a little before he died. He was a gallant Officer, which eminently appeared at the taking of Porto Bello, where he bravely commanded the Ship that attacked the Iron Caſtle, and was generally eſteemed as a worthy Man.

April 9. In Conſequence of the Treaty made in Spain, the Pope has raiſed an immenſe Sum of Money; a large Proportion of which will be lent, at a very low Intereſt, to ſuch as will undertake to execute the Pope's Projects; which is to improve the Territory, and to augment the Number of People under his Dominions: It is with this View he has granted, lately, ſo many Privileges, reduced the Number of Saints Days, given Orders for cleanſing the Canal, repairing Walls, and opening new Ports; as if, after ſo many Ages allowed them for Reflection, it was juſt diſcovered, by one of their ingenious Academies, that his Holineſs's Subjects have ſome ſmall Title——to live near Chriſtians.

According to Advices received from Bourdeaux, the Duke de Penthievre, Capt. Delabe, homeward bound from St. Domingo, ſtruck with ſuch Force on the Point of the great Bank, as ſhe was making for the Mouth of the River Garonne, that ſhe loſt her Rudder, and all her Anchors except one. The Wind and Tide having quickly drove this Ship out to Sea, all the Endeavours of the Crew could not prevent her being thrown upon the Coaſt of Arcaſſon, within eight Leagues of Bourdeaux, and as a Wreck was unavoidable, the Officers and the Crew forſook her, and got to Shore in the Canoe and Long Boat. On the Account they gave of this Diſaſter to the Sieur Yavau de Gajor, Commiſſary of the Marine, at the Headland of Buſch, this Officer conceived ſuch juſt Expedients, and got them executed ſo ſpeedily, that the Ship, notwithſtanding the Diſtance, and the Difficulties the Pilots found to come at her, was ſaved, and brought into the Baſon of Arcaſſon. This Event is ſo much the more remarkable, as that Coaſt has always been fatal to every Veſſel that ſtruck upon it. The ſame Letters obſerve, that this Accident happened to the Duke de Penthievre the End of December laſt, and that the Ship entered the Port of Bourdeaux the 15th ult.

April 12. His Majeſty has been pleaſed to order the Number of Proteſtant Schools in Scotland to be augmented, in which as they are boarded, they are to be taught to work.

On Tueſday Patrick Fielding was, by a Warrant from the Right Hon. the Earl of Holderneſs, committed to Newgate, for enliſting Men into foreign Service.

April 28. Some private Letters from Turin inſinuate, that the Moment the French evacuate Corſica, ſome very unexpected Meaſures will take Place; and that all thoſe political Myſteries will be revealed, which have been ſo long impenetrable, even to Italian Politicians.

The Lords of the Admiralty have put the Arundel Man of War at Woolwich into Commiſſion, and given the Command to Capt. Lloyd.

The Grampus Sloop at Deptford, is put into Commiſſion, and the Command given by the Lords of the Admiralty to Capt. Hill.

According to ſome private Advices from Paris, they are pretty well ſatisfied that the great naval Armament making in Spain, and the Camp that is to be formed in Catalonia, are partly intended to make an Acquiſition which France herſelf would have been glad of making, but could not, for fear of giving Umbrage to her Allies. The French Troops having evacuated Corſica, it is preſumed Hoſtilities will ſoon be renewed between the Genoeſe and Corſicans, and that the Republic will ſpeed no better than in her former Struggles with thoſe Iſlanders; conſequently ſhe muſt loſe the Iſland, and ſo make over her Right to Spain for a Sum of Money.

May 3. Tueſday the Earl of Halifax, and the reſt of the Lords of Trade and Plantations, held a Board, when their Lordſhips took into Conſideration the State of Nova Scotia, and we hear that ſeveral Chaplains will be ſent over to that Colony.

May 5. We hear that the Corſicans of Tetuan and Tangier, notwithſtanding the Peace concluded between the King of Great Britain and the Emperor of Morocco, have lately inſulted the Britiſh Flag, and have even taken ſome Engliſh Ships, under the common Pretence of their Paſſports being inſufficient: The Government has ſent Orders to Mr. Pettigrew, Conſul, in that Country, to make the moſt ſerious Repreſentations againſt this Manner of acting; to require an ample Satisfaction for this Infraction of Treaties, and to declare, that if more ſtrict Attention is not paid, on the Part of Morocco, to it's Engagements, and to keep the Corſairs of Tetuan and Tangier in due Bounds, the Britiſh Crown cannot help making uſe of Reprizals, and to treat them on the Foot of Enemies.

May 15. There are Letters in Town, from Peterſburg, dated the 17th paſt, which mention a very ſharp Engagement on the Frontiers of the Ukraine, between a Body of Ruſſians and one of Tartars, in which the latter were very roughly handled, and obliged to retire towards Poland. It is imagined the Tartars, who were the Aggreſſors, acted not without the Knowlege of the Grand Signior.

On Thurſday a Proclamation was iſſued, forbidding all the King's Subjects to give any Aſſiſtance to the Inhabitants of the Iſland of Corſica, upon Pain of his Majeſty's high Diſpleaſure, and ſuffering ſuch Puniſhment as the Law directs to be inflicted on thoſe who wilfully violate his Majeſty's Treaties.

The Mermaid, Capt. Liddledale, arrived at Whitehaven, from Virginia, had a moſt diſaſtrous Paſſage, in which ſhe loſt her Commander, and Mate, who, with the whole Watch, were waſhed overboard. The Sea broke in upon them with ſuch Violence, that the Boat, and every Thing on Deck, except the Maſts, were carried off.

Edinburgh, May 18. Yeſterday Afternoon were brought in here from Lochaber, Mr. Cameron of Frasfern, Brother to Lochiel; Mr. Cameron of Glenevis; and Charles Stewart, Writer; by a Party of Soldiers, and committed Priſoners to the Caſtle.

St. JOHN's, (in Antigua) June 15.

Friday Night laſt, at twelve o'Clock, a ſevere Shock of an Earthquake was felt thro' this Town, preceded by another of leſs Force.

Laſt Sunday Morning departed this Life, after a tedious Illneſs, the Hon. JOHN TOMLINSON, Eſq; Deputy Lieutenant Governor of this Iſland; and was decently interr'd the next Day. Without enumerating the Particulars of his Character, it may be truly ſaid, that he was a very valuable Perſon, and much lamented by the Public, but more immediately ſo to all thoſe who had the Pleaſure of his Acquaintance.

KINGSTON, (in Jamaica) May 22.

We have certain Advice, via Hiſpaniola, that the King of Spain has publiſhed and Edict, commanding all the French Merchants ſettled in Old Spain, to depart thence under Pain of a large Taxation.

Monſieur de la Motte, General and Commander in Chief of Hiſpaniola, is ſoon to leave that Iſland, another being already arrived to ſucceed him.

Monſieur Forſan, Commander of one of their Guarda Coſtas, has lately taken and brought in there, two Veſſels from North America, he detected Trading, who were immediately condemned. Two of the three Merchants lately confined at Hiſpaniola, for countenancing the Engliſh Trade, have received Sentence to have their Goods alſo confiſcated, and they to be ſent, by the firſt Opportunity to the Gallies. They are daily expecting a Rupture with Spain, inſomuch that moſt of the Veſſels there are daily ſailing, and others attempting to go half loaded. The French at Leoganne, are almoſt retired to Port Prince, which they have ſtrongly fortified.

May 26. Monday laſt a Negroe belonging to Mrs. Millechamp, laid a Bett with his Neighbour, that he would dive longer than he, upon which he jump'd off the Wherry Wharff, and gained the Bett ſo effectually, that he is not yet caſt up.

June 2. Tueſday laſt, came in from the Coaſt of Africa, commanded by George Cockburn, Eſq; his Majeſty's Ship the Glory, of Forty Guns, by whom we are informed, that when they lay at Cape Coaſt Caſtle, two French Men of War, and a Merchantman, paſſed by there, in their Way to Anamaboa, upon which Capt. Cockburn went down after them, being joined next Day by his Majeſty's Ships the St. Alban, of 60, and the Aſſiſtance, of 50 Guns, together with a Sloop; and on their Arrival at Anamaboa, found them there accordingly: Upon which Capt. Cockburn ſent to the French Commodore, demanding that their Merchantman ſhould go out of the Road, otherwiſe he would be obliged to force her out; for that ſhe had no Buſineſs there, as Anamaboa was an Engliſh Settlement: And farther, that if they wanted any Proviſions, they were heartily welcome to what the Place could afford; but that he muſt fix a Day for his Departure: All which Monſieur, after ſome Difficulty, complied with, and ſailed a Day before the Time appointed for his Departure.

HALIFAX, (in Nova Scotia) June 23.

Thurſday laſt the Captains Rogers and Cobb, arrived here from Mallagaſh, where they had been with their ſecond Freight of Germans, who inform us, that the Settlements goes on to Admiration, ſeveral Houſes, beſides the two Block Houſes, are already raiſed and almoſt covered, and that Place ſeems to look quite alive.

BOSTON, June 25.

We hear from Shrewſbury, that on the 12th Inſtant, being training Day, ſome frolickſome Blades

Blades must needs fire off a Cannon they had there which they loaded and wadded so immoderately, that it burst in Pieces, and a very great Number of People being about it, two young Men were grievously wounded, one having one of his Thighs, the other one of his Arms shattered to Pieces, and a third had one of his Fingers carried away.

NEW-YORK, July 2.

Since our last arrived here the Captains Lawrence, Brown, and Dickson, all from the Bay of Honduras, in a Passage of between 25 and 30 Days. They inform us, that sailing from thence about the 23d of May last, they came to an Anchor on Water Key Banks, where they remained all Night: That the next Morning, at break of the Day, they saw a Brig coming in, which afterwards prov'd to be a Spanish One of 12 Carriage and 24 Swivels, and about 80 Men: That in about three Hours after she took Capt. Brown, on board of whom he put eight Hands: He then chased Capt. Dickson, who finding himself pursued, run his Schooner ashore, where the Spaniards soon after likewise got ashore, and manning his Boats went and plunder'd Capt. Dickson; but finding himself chased by a Sloop and a Brig fitted out by the English Vessels in the Bay, he soon quitted both his own Vessel and Capt. Dickson's Schooner, and went ashore on some of the Keys, leaving his Brig still aground: That the Englishmen soon got both the Vessels off, retook Capt. Brown, and kept Possession of the Spanish Brig: During this Time Capt. Lawrence retook his own Vessel, by killing three of the Spaniards, three more he obliged to jump overboard, and the other two he carried back and put on board of Capt. Spurrier, in a Ship bound for Holland: That after repairing the little Damages they received, they sailed again the third of June, in Company with Capt. Stuppard bound for Amsterdam, Capt. Sergeant, of Rhode Island, bound for the Musqueto Shore, and Capt. Furlong for this Place, who arrived here Yesterday: And that they left in the Bay, the Captains Sweet, Duncan, and Church of Rhode Island, two Snows and a Sloop belonging to Boston, the Captains Davis and Waynman of this Port, and several other Vessels.

They further inform us, that two Spanish Brigs and a Sloop were fitting out at Port Mahoo, designed for the Bay.

Capt. Tuder, in an extraordinary Passage of nine Days from St. Kitts, informs us, that Capt. Dunbar, in a Sloop belonging to Rhode Island, was taken the latter End of May last, by a small Spanish Galley, and carried into Guardaloup, where she was condemned, and the Captain confined in Jail.

By a Gentleman who came Passenger in Capt. Kiersted, who arrived here last Friday, in 9 Days from Topsail Inlet, in North Carolina, we learn, that the Day before he sailed from thence, they had Advice there, that an Express was arrived at Charles Town, in South Carolina, from Virginia, with an Account, that a large Body of French and Indians, amounting to between 7 or 800, were arrived on their back Settlements, and had murdered all the Inhabitants of an out Village in the Province of Virginia, except a Girl of about 10 Years old, who fled into the Woods, and by that Means escaped the Cruelty of these merciless Savages.

PHILADELPHIA.

July 5. Friday last arriv'd here Capt. Lownes from Antigua, who touch'd at Bermuda, where he receiv'd certain Intelligence, that the French had taken Possession of Turks Islands, the Grand Caicos, Heneago, Maguana, &c. in the Windward Passage: That they had with them a Forty Gun Ship, and some Sloops: And that they had order'd several Bermudians, and other Vessels, that were there a Salting and Wrecking, immediately to go off, and not to return again; pretending they had got a Right to these Islands from the Spaniards.

We hear from Marcus Hook, that last Week a poor Man hang'd himself there, and has left behind him a Wife and some small Children.

July 12. Saturday last a Man was robb'd of his Pocket Book in the Market, in which were several Fifteen Shilling Bills; but he suspecting the Fellow that had done it (observing that he was followed by him from Stall to Stall for some Time before), soon after met with, took up, and search'd him, but could not find his Book; however, seeing one of his Hands close shut, he open'd it, and found the Bills; upon which he carried him before a Magistrate, who sent him to Jail.

On Sunday, early in the Morning, a Dwelling-House and Kitchen, on the western Side of Second-street, were struck by Lightning, and considerably damaged; but being untenanted, no Person was hurt. The great Fondness that the Matter of Lightning has for Metals, was, perhaps, never more conspicuous: In it's Passage downwards, it went considerably out of it's nearest Way to the Earth, for the sake of the Leads of the Windows, and Iron Hooks, Staples, &c. in the Window Frames; which were all, in many Places, much melted and flais'd thereby: Several Panes of Glass were also a little melted, and colour'd, in a beautiful Manner, round the Edges, near where the Leads surrounded them; and those Parts of the Leads being thin, and not sufficient to conduct the whole of the Flash, were melted; but the thick Parts of the Leads (which separate the Panes from each other) conducted it freely, and without being the least damag'd.

On Tuesday Evening last a Fellow got into a Gentleman's House in Front street, and had taken down a Looking Glass, and wrapp'd it carefully up in a Blanket; and tied up several Bundles of Bedcloaths, and other Furniture, as much as several Hands could have carried off at one Time; when, unluckily for him, the Maid happened to be sent for something into the Room where he was at Work, which obliged him to make the best of his Way out of a Window the Back way, without his intended Booty. This is probably the Fellow (or another of the Gang), that was lately found under another Gentleman's Bed, in Market street, about twelve o'Clock at Night.

The same Day a labouring Man, being at work in a House in Town, got to a Bottle of Rum, of which he drank so freely, that he died soon after.

By the last Vessel from Jamaica, there is Advice that the Island was very sickly, and Markets exceeding low.

ANNAPOLIS.

Last Saturday Night, the Brigantine Swan, a fine large Vessel, commanded by Capt Clarkson, then lying in Swan Creek, in Baltimore County, having 390 Hogsheads of Tobacco on board, took Fire, and was burnt: The rest of her Loading was a long Side, and she was to have sail'd for London next Week. The Fire was occasion'd by the Cabbin Boy's drawing a Bottle of Spirits out of a Hogshead with a Candle in his Hand, which communicated the Fire into the Hogshead, which immediately burst, and the Boy was burnt to Ashes.

Some few Days ago, two Men on board a Ship in Chester River, engaging in a Quarrel, tumbled both over, and were drowned. Their Bodies were afterwards taken up, and both buried in one Grave, where they lie peaceably together.

Yesterday his Honour the President, in Council, was pleased further to Prorogue the General Assembly of this Province, to Tuesday the 2d Day of October next.

The same Day arrived here the Snow Dunlop, Capt. Alexander, from London, in nine Weeks from Land to Land. With him came Passenger Mr. David M'Culloch, *Merchant.
